Instructions to apply for a Working Holiday Visa for Australia

The Working Holiday Visa permits young adults from eligible countries to have an extended holiday supplemented by short-term employment in Australia.

To apply for a Working Holiday Visa, applicants need to have turned 18, but have not yet turned 31, at the time of applying for the Working Holiday Visa and not have any dependent children who will be accompanying them to Australia.

Working Holiday Visa applicants are generally permitted to:

- travel to, and enter Australia on multiple occasions for 12 months from date of grant;
- remain in Australia for a period not exceeding 12 months from the initial date of entry. If you depart Australia during your 12 month stay, you are not able to recover the period of time you have spent outside Australia;
- undertake any kind of work in Australia, for a up to 6 months with the same employer; and
- study for up to 4 months in Australia.

You must be outside of Australia when your application for your first Working Holiday Visa is lodged and decided. Holders of the following passports may apply for a Working Holiday Visa via our office:

Belgium	Canada	Cyprus	Denmark	Estonia	Finland
France	Germany	Hong Kong (SAR)	Ireland	Italy	Japan
Korea	Malta	Netherlands	Norway	Sweden	Taiwan
United Kingdom

6. An envelope with your name, address and postage stamp for the return of your notification of visa decision

Additional documentation may be required in the following circumstances:

- Character testing / Biometric/ Health testing with a panel doctor may be required. Should Home Affairs require you to complete character testing / biometric / health testing, we shall provide you with further instructions on how to proceed. It may take longer to finalise visa applications where character / biometric / health testing is required and an additional service fee will apply.
- Genuine Temporary Entrant Requirement Home Affairs will assess the individual circumstances of your visa application to determine whether the purpose, duration and proposed activities in Australia are reasonable and consistent with "tourism". Home Affairs will also assess whether you hold or have access to adequate funds for your intended vacation. Should you require our assistance to prepare satisfactory and consistent supporting documents, an additional service fee will apply. If Home Affairs request additional documents and/or in the event of non-routine processing, an additional service fee will apply. Please note that it may take longer to finalize visa applications where additional information is requested.

Global visa processing times of Home Affairs indicates that 75% of Working Holiday Visa applications are finalized within one month of receipt of a complete eVisa application by Home Affairs.

Actual processing times of your application may vary depending on a range of factors including whether your application is complete, checking by external parties if required (health, character, national security), how promptly you submit additional information (if requested), surges in demand and peak periods . Please apply well before your proposed travel date. You should not finalise your flight arrangements until your visa has been approved.

A Working Holiday Visa will be linked electronically to the passport you provide with your application. You must use the same passport to travel to Australia.

Should your Working Holiday Visa application be approved by Home Affairs, you will receive a written notification of Home Affairs grant from our office. We incur no liability for financial loss or otherwise if Working Holiday Visa processing is delayed or your visa application is refused.
